IN REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS

APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Christine Brigagliano, Esquire

APPLICATION: Asylum; withholding of removal

ORDER:

PER CURIAM. In an order dated (b) (6) the United States Court of Appeals for the (b) (6) found that the respondent has suffered past persecution and remanded the case for further proceedings, including a determination as to whether the respondent warranted humanitarian asylum. The (b) (6) noted that the government may rebut the presumption of a well-founded fear and had the burden of establishing that internal relocation within the Philippines is reasonable. The respondent has submitted a post-administrative decision brief in response to the (b) (6) order. We find that a remand is warranted in this case in order to allow the parties to present additional evidence, both testimonial and documentary, prior to the issuance of a new decision by the Immigration Judge within findings of fact on these outstanding issues. Accordingly, the Board's July 7, 2006, decision is vacated insofar as it pertains to the respondent's application for asylum and withholding of removal, and the record is remanded to the Immigration Judge for further proceedings not inconsistent with the (b) (6) order and the foregoing opinion.
